CHANGES FOR RESTRICTED ARKANSAS-BRED STAKES RACES AT OAK-

Oaklawn Jockey Club and ATBHA are excited to announce that 2013 will bring higher stakes purses for Registered Arkansas-breds. The six stakes races run at Oaklawn Park restricted to registered Arkansas-breds will each have a $60,000 guaranteed purse. Oaklawn Jockey Club and ATBHA will each fund half of the purse for each race. The purses in each race will be distributed 60% to the winner, 20% to 2nd, 10% to 3rd, 5% to 4th & 3% to 5th. 2% of the purse will be divided among the remaining starters.

In addition to the increased purses for stakes races, as described above, as previously reported a sustaining nomination will be required for each of these stakes.

The sustaining nomination will be due two weeks prior to each restricted stakes at Oaklawn. No fee will be due, ONLY the nomination. The Racing Office will then compile a list of potential entries for each restricted stakes prior to the actual date of entry.

In the event a sustaining nomination IS NOT timely made, as outlined above, a supplementary nomination accompanied by the payment of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) will be required and payable through the Racing Office prior to or at the time of entry in a restricted race. Payment of the supplementary nomination fee will then qualify the horse to be entered and run.

See page 4 for excerpts from a recent article published in the Sentinel Record's regarding purses at Oaklawn Park in 2013!

How much does a fire department know about a horse farm?

Does your fire department know anything about your property other than the address?. If a fire starts, you and your helpers will hopefully be there to evacuate the horses while the fire department is enroute or just arriving at the scene. But, what is you aren't at the scene? What if your neighbors or the firefighters are there before you? Would they know what to expect and what their "job" should be?

Many farm owners don't realize they can work out a plan with their local fire safety inspector and other fire department members. This plan takes everyone step-by-step through the process of knowing your property layout, your barn construction and interior design, and your barn's inhabitants. You and your helpers may already know this information, but firefighters also have to know - before they even reach your property - so they can decide what apparatus should respond, where it should be placed and what tactics will be used.

There are eight basic questions that must be answered.

1. What is the barn layout?
2. How many horses are in the barn and what "kind" are they?
3. In what order should horses be evacuated?
4. Once outside the barn, what paddocks, riding rings, indoor arenas, other barns, or areas on your neighbor's property have you designated for emergency use?
5. Will the fire department have access to the barn for apparatus placement?
6. Where is your water supply and how farm away is it from the barn?
7. Where is the electrical panel located?
8. Are there any hazardous materials stored in or near your barn?

These 8 questions will be addressed in detail in the next newsletter along with other practices that could aid in saving the lives of your horses and educate and that will assist area firemen in the practices and skills that should be utilized with live horses in instances such as barn fires.

ATTENTION HORSEMEN/RIDERS BIT RECALL

U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission announced the voluntary recall of the Happy Mouth Wire Mouth Bit. Consumers should stop using the product immediately.

About 3,400 were sold from July 2003 to April 2012. Apparently the steel braided wire in the mouthpiece that connects the bit on either side of the horse's cheek can become frayed, rusted or worn, which can cause the bit to break. If this happens, the rider can lose control and fall from the horse.

OAKLAWN PARK ANNOUNCED RECORD PURSES IN '13

Stall applications are available for Oaklawn Park's 2013 live racing season by calling the track's racing office at 501-701-5570 or by downloading the application from the Oaklawn web-site at www.oaklawn.com. The track is offering almost $20 million in purses, a local record, during Oaklawn's 2013 live season.

Management recently announced a record $5.7 million stakes schedule for the 56-day season, January 11 - April 13. Highlights include purse increases for three major Arkansas Derby prep races - Smarty Jones now $150,000, the Southwest at $300,000 and the Rebel at $600,000 - along with a hike to $400,000 for the Fantasy, Oaklawn's premier race for 3-year-old fillies.

Racing Secretary Pat Pope is working on the most lucrative condition book in the track's 109-year history, featuring maiden special weight races at $53,000, open allowance races up to $56,000 and increases in categories as high as 50 percent compared to the first condition book of the 2012 season.

Oaklawn attributed the purse increases to the growing success of Instant Racing and gaming along with the growth in popularity of the Oaklawn racing signal. During the 2012 racing season four purse increases were announced and by the time the meet ended purses for maiden special weights had spiraled from $40,000 to $51,000.

In addition, purses for claiming races with horses tagged for $15,000 and above rose 31 percent last year, according to the track release.

In Oaklawn's Release, David Longinotti announced because Oaklawn had enjoyed a banner year, they "put that money right back into purses for the horsemen who support

RELEASE

August 22, 2012

Contact: Bob Curran Jr. (212) 521-5326

The Jockey Club Unveils Major League Horse Racing and Thoroughbred World

The Jockey Club today announced the launch of Major League Horse Racing, an interactive game that combines the skill of fantasy sports and the fun of social media with the excitement of horse racing, and Thoroughbred World, a game focused on the breeding, owning and training aspects of the sport.

Players can access both games through Facebook. Major League Horse Racing is also available at MajorLeagueHorseRacing.com, and there is an Apple iPad version of Thoroughbred World coming soon.

Both games were developed as part of a wide-ranging fan development initiative that was recommended in the comprehensive 2011 economic study of the Thoroughbred industry, which was commissioned by The Jockey Club and conducted by McKinsey & Company.

"These games complement our fan development strategy and will be heavily promoted through our America's Best Racing platform and our television programming," said Jason G. Wilson, The Jockey Club's vice president of business development. "Free-to-play online games have been successful in teaching consumers how to play other games, such as online poker, and they attract fans.

"Social gaming has become a major entertainment platform, as evidenced by FarmVille's 85 million 'farmers,' 30 million of whom play daily," he added. "A game like Thoroughbred World that simulates the Thoroughbred owner experience for casual and dedicated fans should build racing's brand and relevance."

In just over one week since its release, Major League Horse Racing has attracted more than 1,200 players. Thoroughbred World has attracted 2,000 players since it was launched and promoted on August 16, 2012. (The game had more than 20,000 players during beta testing in Asia this summer with virtually no promotion.)

"If you love the thrill of the race and would like to experience handicapping in a low-risk way, then the free-to-play Major League Horse Racing should appeal to you," said Wilson. "If you would rather spend time on the farm than at the track, you will likely enjoy Thoroughbred World."

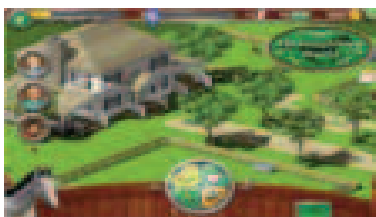

In Major League Horse Racing, players will complete a race card each week, assigning Game Bucks to the four horses they believe will outperform the field. Additional Game Bucks can be earned through various social tasks on Facebook and Twitter.

Each week's highest scoring players will be eligible for prizes that will be revealed throughout the season.

Thoroughbred World combines the best game-play elements of a simulated world builder and a resource manager. Players create the ultimate racehorse in custom training facilities, improving agility, balance, stamina and speed through a series of mini-games.

Once their dream horse is prepared, players enter races against other players to win in-game currency and other items.

The Jockey Club, founded in 1894 and dedicated to the improvement of Thoroughbred racing and breeding, is the breed registry for North American Thoroughbreds. In fulfillment of its mission, The Jockey Club provides support and leadership on a wide range of important industry initiatives and it serves the information and technology needs of owners, breeders, media, fans and farms, among others. When the type style of the Stallion Award Payments was converted from what was submitted to the printer to a type style that was compatible with their Mac software it caused the listing for Commander Shoes' name to be on two lines. That caused the earnings and award listings following him to be off by one line in the April-June '12 newsletter listing. This error was not caught in proofing. The list to the left is the corrected 2011 Stallion Award Payments.

Where in this wide world can man find nobility without pride,
Friendship without envy,
Or beauty without vanity?
Here, where grace is served with muscle
And strength by gentleness confined
He serves without servility; he has fought without enmity.
There is nothing so powerful, nothing less violent.
There is nothing so quick, nothing more patient.

A Message from our President:

The weather has made it difficult this year. Between the drought, weeds, and now army worms (since we finally got some rain), it has made it difficult to grow any grass. My sprayer is about worn out and I am still struggling to have some good pastures. The grass must be stronger in protein in dry weather because the animals stay fatter if they do have grass to graze. Then again, it could be that costly grain that I pour out every day! I know you pay attention to how much you feed when a sack of feed that cost $10 a year ago costs $12 to $14 a sack today.

I saw in the paper the other day where Oaklawn's Maiden Allowance races will be $52,000 in 2013. That will be like running in a stakes race. Effective for the 2013 live meet, all restricted Arkansas-bred stakes purses will be $60,000. We hoped we could raise them to $75,000, but that's not possible just yet ... maybe in the future that will happen.

The two-year-old Futurities at Louisiana Downs will run September 22nd. The Lady Razorback may be tough. It looks like there is a good crop of two-year-old Arkansas-bred fillies.

There is a lot of West Nile cases in states south of us and it's working its way north. So, when you vaccinate your horses, remember the West Nile vaccine. I've never seen a horse with West Nile, but it's widespread this year. There has been over 600 human West Nile cases in Texas this year. I read where Arkansas got it's first and then a second. I hope that is all we get!!!

Get ready for cooler weather; the live meet will be right around the corner and we'll be seeing everyone again!!!

Bill McDowell, President

FROM THE ATBHA OFFICE

Things are picking up at the office and will only get busier and busier as the end of the year approaches with our December 31 deadlines. Don't wait until the last minute ... take a few minutes and complete your 2012 registrations and nominations; get them done and in the hands of the ATBHA office. REMEMBER ... A foal's Jockey Club registration DOES NOT have to be completed before you submit the Arkansas-bred foal registration. The Jockey Club allows one year from the date of foaling to complete the foal registration. ATBHA's deadline is different, it is December 31st of the foaling year for the least expensive registration fee. Also the nomination deadline for 2011 foals is December 31, 2012 for the least expensive nomination fee. Don't let these deadlines slip by because late registrations and nominations are costly. Wouldn't you rather pay $40 for a weanling foal registration than $200 for a yearling? Wouldn't you rather pay $300 for a yearling nomination than $2,500 for a nomination after the foal's yearling year?

We have an election year coming up in 2013. If you know of someone you would like to nominate to run for a position on the ATBHA Board of Directors, please submit their name to either Deana at the ATBHA office or Bill McDowell.

We now have possession of our old web-site. We are working to get it all updated and hope to publish it real soon with as much of it updated as possible. The stallion pages may still be somewhat of a "work in progress" section and may not be updated when we do re-publish the updated site, but we will work on it as we can and keep re-publishing it as changes and more updates are made. Thank you for bearing with us during this time.

ALSO REMEMBER to reserve advertising space in the upcoming 2013 Stallion & Farm Directory. Rates are listed on page 6, the 2013 Stallion & Farm Questionnaire. Please complete this Questionnaire ... (to keep from dismantling the newsletter or tearing it up, make a photocopy of that page, fill out the photocopy and send it to the ATBHA office with your current information). You might also check the section of the 2012 directory which lists each member's name and contact information and let us know if your listing needs corrections.

Holidays are fast approaching and before we know it, the backside stable gate will open and horses will begin arriving. That will mark the beginning of another busy season of racing and associated festivities. I look forward to seeing all of you.

If anyone has any suggestions of something you would like to see in our newsletter, on our web-site or even at the banquet, please let us know. We want to continue to improve, but your in-put is essential for us to meet your needs.
