CORONAVIRUS (Covid-19) Takes the World by Storm

With only a little over four months of 2020 behind us, what a year of uncertainties we have had. The Cella family stood up to the uncertainties and put the horses and horsemen first by allowing the horses to complete the 57 day live meet program in high fashion, without spectators and made history the final day of the meet by splitting the Arkansas Derby into two divisions. Because of the overwhelming interest in this step to the Kentucky Derby, both divisions carried the same number of points and the purses were divided equally from the original $1,000,000, each with a $500,000 purse. It's a wonderful feeling to see Arkansas and Oaklawn play such a large role in thoroughbred racing and the Kentucky Derby to accommodate the three year olds vieing for entry into the first leg of the triple crown.

The spectator-would-bes answered in high fashion also! Arkansas racing fans placed their bets on the 14 race card on Arkansas' Double Derby Day with a total handle of some $41,000,000.

It takes everyone, in times like what we've all had to endure these past months, to get through and make a negative a positive! Thank you to the Cella-Oaklawn connections and the Arkansas thoroughbred racing industry's supporters, fans and all of the many connections.

2020 Arkansas-bred Restricted Stakes Recap

The first restricted stakes race of 2020, the Downthedustyroad Breeders' S for fillies & mares, 3 year olds & up, ran February 22nd. Early morning odds favorite and fan favorite winner, BYE BYE J, owned by Alex & JoAnn Lieblong and bred by McDowell Farm, pressed in second place over Matapan, owned by Adriel Gonzalez and also bred by McDowell Farm, who set the pace and grudgingly gave ground to the winner finishing second by 1 1/4 lengths. Georgia's Reward stayed in the show spot throughout followed by Proud Victoria, Dixie Flyer, Blushing Bella, Dutch Treat and All About Clara.

The Nodouble Breeders' S for 3 year olds & up followed a month later, March 28th. Ridden by Calvin Borel, Carson McCord's K J's NOBILITY, bred by Hobego Racing, was odds on favorite who patiently handled toward the inside behind the first flight of horses, tracking through the turn, straightened up for the drive, challenged a furlong out and kicked clear winning by 3 lengths over Robert Cline's Bandit Point, bred by Marianna's Fate and ridden by Robert's fiancée', Kelsi Harr. Bandit Point finished 3 lengths ahead of Glacken's Ghost, followed by J. E.'s Handmedown, Rock City Roadhog, Hoonani Road, Racer, Heritage Park and Destiny Way.

The 42nd running of the Rainbow Miss for 3 year old fillies and mares, was won by owner/breeder Shortleaf Stable's SEKANI, for trainer Will VanMeter over second place finisher, The Mary Rose, who had the same owner, breeder, trainer connections thereby taking a one-two finish for the race. Choctaw Charlie followed in third, ahead of Proud Victoria, Lucky Every Day, Get One More, Hissy Missy and Julie Arkansas.

The 47th running of the Rainbow Stakes, for 3 year olds ran on the same race card. JRita Young Thoroughbreds' bred and owned, MAN IN THE CAN, who was outrun early but advanced three wide in the turn, roused, kicked down the leader late to be in time. Tempt Fate was a couple lengths behind, followed by Zaino Boyz, Chicken Hawk, Hamazing Wisdom, Ten Buds and Piece of Work.

The final restricted stakes of the year for 3 year olds and up was the Arkansas Breeders' Championship S. held Friday, May 1st at a distance of 1 1/16 mile with a purse of $165,000. # A Message from our President:

In lieu of the standard "Letter From Our President" that is in this area of our newsletters, this time I did not have the heart to even ask Bill to take the time to write a letter with everything else he has on his plate right now. For those that don't know, McDowell Farm was hit pretty hard by the storm that went through the Southeastern area of Arkansas (Sparkman, AR) Easter night, Sunday, April 12th. The 80-100 mph straight-line winds took down a huge part of their fencing, barns, and trees on the entire farm. There were some minor horse injuries, but fortunately nothing serious and no deaths. As far as the houses, an area of the roof of Bill's parents' home sustained damage to the roof and the A/C unit.

The trees that went down around Bill & Mary's house caused damage to the play house and fencing, but fortunately not to their home. The tree outside of the office went down as if it was strategically placed as close as it could get without damaging the structure itself. Mary's car was under the limbs of the large hardwood and sustained some damage, but it wasn't as bad as it could have been.

Bill and Mary were outside haying and watering before coming in for the evening when Bill heard the wild winds coming and hollered for Mary to get in the house. It happened so fast the storm cellar wasn't even an option, but they did get in the house just as it hit. New fences and barns can be replaced. New trees can be planted and everything else can be repaired. The main thing is that everyone and the horses were safe!

Ernie Witt, Sr. of Ozark, AR also sustained damages at his farm the same night, but from a totally different storm. His barn lost its roof and a sliding door to the winds that went through that area. Fortunately, there were no injuries to horses or people.

Arkansas is known for April rains, storms and tornadoes, but you hate to hear of it happening, especially to someone you know. If it has to be and you come out with no injuries or worse, it makes it a little easier to swallow.

FROM THE ATBHA OFFICE

I sincerely hope everyone has avoided the Covid-19 virus that attacked a large part of our world, country and our state's population. My hat is off to the Oaklawn management and the hard decisions they so promptly put into place to protect the thoroughbred horse fans as well as the gaming fans. Also the diligence shown to all employees, front side and back side, management, trainers, owners, etc. enforcing temperatures to be taken daily to do everything within their power to keep everyone as healthy as possible/virus free and maintain the live racing schedule, albeit without spectators.

Obviously it was necessary to postpone the annual ATBHA Awards banquet, but since a majority of those that attend are Arkansas horsemen that could or would still be in the area after the Oaklawn 2020 live meet ends, it is still possible that we will have an abbreviated version of the banquet at a date yet to be determined during later months or combine the 2019 awards presentations with 2020. You will, of course, be notified whatever is decided.

The Registered Arkansas-bred stamp has been affixed to the digital Jockey Club certificates of all 2018 foals whose Jockey Club registrations were complete by April 15, 2020. We will soon be stamping the 2019 foals and urge you, if you have not already done so, to complete the 2019 registration of your Arkansas-bred foals.

We have had three awards checks returned this year. The corrected addresses were obtained and the checks were remailed. Ironically, all were owner's awards checks and two checks were remailed to a Hot Springs address!
