Rules and Regulations Pertaining to Registration of a Broodmare

“Registered Arkansas-bred thoroughbred horses, registered Arkansas thoroughbred broodmare, registered Arkansas thoroughbred stallion, foal registration, broodmare registration and stallion registration, eligibility to participate in the Arkansas Racing Commission Purse and Awards Fund and eligibility to participate in races that are restricted to registered Arkansas-bred thoroughbred horses shall be determined and made in accordance with registration rules and regulations, including reasonable time deadlines and fee schedules, adopted by the Arkansas Thoroughbred Breeders' and Horsemen's Association and approved by the Commission.”

ATBHA Registration Rules & Regulations have been adopted by the ATBHA and approved by the Arkansas Racing Commission. Below is the portion that specifically pertains to Broodmare registration and eligibility:

III. BROODMARE REGISTRATION.

A. A broodmare in foal by a stallion not registered as an Arkansas Stallion who is brought into Arkansas for the purpose of foaling and registering her foal as a Registered Arkansas-bred must be reported by the broodmare owner or agent at the time of her arrival in Arkansas prior to foaling by completing and filing an Application for Registration of Broodmare with ATBHA, accompanied by a copy of the broodmare's Jockey Club Certificate of Foal Registration, including the section showing ownership transfers, and payment of broodmare registration fee together with current ATBHA membership dues, if not previously paid.

B. In order for a mare to be registered with ATBHA as a “registered Arkansas thoroughbred broodmare”, her registration with ATBHA must be accomplished (1) as stated in section III. A. above, or (2) If section III. A. above is not applicable, prior to foaling the foal for which the registration as an “Arkansas-bred thoroughbred horse” is sought.

C. To register a broodmare as a “registered Arkansas-bred thoroughbred broodmare” an Application for Registration of Broodmare must be completed and filed with ATBHA prior to foaling, accompanied by a copy of the broodmare's Jockey Club Certificate of Foal Registration, including the section showing ownership transfers, and payment of broodmare registration fee together with current ATBHA membership dues, if not previously paid.

D. A broodmare will remain registered and her owner shall be entitled to Breeder's Awards based on the earnings of her registered Arkansas-bred progeny until said broodmare changes ownership. If a broodmare is sold or otherwise changes ownership, the new owner must re-register said broodmare into his/her name prior to foaling in order for that broodmare's registration status to remain uninterrupted and to be entitled to Breeder's Awards based on the earnings of her registered Arkansas-bred progeny foaled during his ownership.
